COUNTY OF ORIGIN is entered in a student's EIS file from the application for admission. A student must file a new application for admission after graduating or dropping out for one year and the county of origin is coded from the address on the new application. Thus, the county of origin for a student may originally be Harris County but may become Denton County by a later admission date.

<sup>2</sup>New from high school (or first time in college). Some "new from high school" students have enough college credit earned in military service, by local and national examinations, dual enrollments, or TAMS, to be classified above the freshman level. TAMS & Dual admits included.

Returning former student. A student who drops out for one year or more must file an application for admission in order to return. Such a student is coded as a former student.

Transient and special students. A person enrolled in another institution who takes courses at UNT without actually transferring to UNT is coded as a transient student. A person who is permitted to enroll in designated classes without completing the regular admission process is coded as a special student. Transients and special students are accepted for one semester only (they must reapply for permission to enroll for another term).

Continuing student. Students who continue to be enrolled without needing to file a new application for admission are counted as continuing students.
